FAST; what does the new transportation bill mean to you?

Wednesday April 6, 2016, 5:00-7:00 PM

Empire Building, 205 N. 10th Street, downstairs

Join us for three presentations on the FAST Act– legislation that was recently passed by Congress authorizing federal policy and spending on surface transportation for the next five years. Learn what is in the bill and what it means for transportation in the Treasure Valley

Elaine Clegg: Transportation Program Coordinator Idaho Smart Growth and President of the Association of Metropolitan Planning Organizations will talk about what's in the act gets a thumbs up and what has mixed reviews

Matt Stoll: Executive Director, Community Planning Association Southwest Idaho (COMPASS)

Kelli Fairless: Valley Regional Transit Executive Director

Matt and Kelli will share how the bill affects the policies and federal transportation funding that comes to our region.

5:00-5:30 – Reception

5:30-6:30 – Presentations

6:30-7:00 – Q&A
